Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your Jan. 13, 2015, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in July 1984.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file. We will publish a list of organizations whose tax-exempt status was revoked under section 6033(j) of the Code on our website beginning in early 2011.

Dear Sir or Madam:

We recently detected a discrepancy between your tax-exempt classification under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) section 501(c) and the foundation code we assigned your organization. (The foundation code is an internal designation we use to classify the type of support received by an exempt organization.) By reviewing our records or from information you provided, we were able to resolve the discrepancy. Although no action is required by you, we want to inform you of the change we made.

Before our review, our records indicated your organization was exempt under IRC section 501(c) (4). After our review, we changed our records to reflect that your organization is exempt under IRC section 501(c) (3).

If you have any questions, please call us at the number shown above.

Sincerely,

R. C. Johnson
Director, EO Examinations
